

5.1.B Summary of the project*

- A summary of the project must be provided in English and may be included in future publications. This summary should be a snapshot and should include the main features of your project.
- Summary of the Main Features of the Project Subject (Stick to this space as much as possible). You should address the following points: Project Definition, Situation addressed by the Project, Methodology & Approach, Results, Impact of the realization of the project

Project title	Continous Improvement and Qualification for Accreditation in Faculty of Agriculture, Benha Univeristy
Specific Objectives of the Project:	-The project aims to provide the proper environment for continuous improvement of teaching and learning, scientific research as well as community service in order to achieve all the standards of institutional capacity and learning efficiency which approved by the National agency for quality assurance of learning and accreditation. The project designed a plan to improve the learning student laboratories, teachin classes, exam control complex, In addition the project will develop professional diplomas in areas required in job markets. Moreover, the project will support the cener of analysis and agricultural consultations in the faculty to improve its services which help in solving the agricultural problems in the surrounding community. The project also will improve the current research laboratory for biotechnological techniques. The project also will help in improving the infrastructure of the farm to be suitable for conducting distinguished scientific research as well as providing valuable community services.
Outcomes:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Achieving the intended learning objectives related to practical and professional skills of coueses taught by educational programs, which enhance the competition capacity of the graduates in job markets. • Providing under-graduate students as well as post-graduate students and researchers with the necessary requirements for self learning. • Improve the scientific research to reach the international level and self-support stage as well. • Improve under-graduate students as well as post-graduate students achievements. • Activating the positive relationship between the Faculty and surrounding community. • Achieving the standards of Institutional capacity and learning efficiency approved by the National agency for quality assurance of learning and accreditation, which will help the Faculty of Agriculture, Benha University to be accredited.
SUMMARY	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The project will improve the infrastructure of educational laboratories and provide them with necessary requirements to be efficient in enhancing the practical and professional skills of students which will improve the competition capacity of the students. The project also will help in improving teaching classes and the library as well, which will help in enhancing students' achievements and provide students the necessary requirements for self-learning. In addition, the project will develop professional diplomas in areas required in job markets. Moreover, the project will support the cener of analysis and agricultural consultations in the faculty to improve its services which help in solving the agricultural problems in the surrounding community. The project also will improve the current research laboratory for biotechnological techniques. The project also will help in improving the infrastructure of the farm to be suitable for conducting distinguished scientific research .